

Senior Consultants

Competitive Package
(depending on experience)

Surrey based with some travel
(international and within the UK)

Do you thrive in a fast paced, highly varied, customer-driven working environment? Our expanding team, focused Talent Management solutions and diverse client base, makes now an exciting time to join the A&DC Consulting team.

We are a leading HR consultancy of 50 staff. We combine our strengths in business psychology and behavioural change to offer our clients the best solutions to enable them to Discover, Transform and Energise talented people at all levels throughout their organisations.

As a Senior Consultant you will be working in partnership with a broad range of clients to deliver our Consultancy services in key Talent Management areas, such as assessment for recruitment and succession planning, development of managers and executives, and inspirational motivation and leadership. You will also make a significant contribution to raising our profile and expanding our client base by nurturing established client relationships and developing new opportunities.

We are looking for candidates who possess the following qualities:

- A Masters Degree in Occupational Psychology (or equivalent).
- Experience in designing, delivering and evaluating assessment, management or leadership development solutions.
- Commercial awareness and the desire to win new business and develop long-term client partnerships.
- A confident and persuasive communicator.
- Well-organised with the ability to work independently and as part of a team.

In return we offer a competitive benefits package, including car allowance, healthcare, non-contributory pension, bonus and commission. We value flexible working and you will have opportunities for travel and be exposed to a wide variety of projects in a range of different client contexts as we deliver innovative talent management solutions.

If this is you, please email your CV with a covering letter to our HR Manager:
